

STUDENT WORK

This actual 6th grader's work shows the student's redesign of the COVID molecule with a 3D biology tool that lets students recreate or create a new organism while learning the individual parts.